

RAISING HORIZONS®

Are you interested in learning about Careers in Aviation?

Then join us for an exciting and motivating week of fun and discovery as we explore the fascinating world of aviation!

OBAP/NBCFAE

Aviation Career Education (ACE) Academy

What: 2009 Los Angeles/Compton Ace Academy

When: July 13, 2009 – July 17, 2009

Where: Tomorrow's Aeronautical Museum at Compton Airport
961 W. Alondra Blvd, Compton, CA 90220

Who: Students between the ages of 12 and 17

Why: To introduce minority students to the many different careers in the aviation industry

Cost: $75

The Organization of Black Airline Pilots (OBAP) and the National Black Coalition of Federal Aviation Employees (NBCFAE) and Tomorrow's Aeronautical Museum (TAM) are sponsoring a week long aviation academy for students between the ages of 12 and 17 who are interested in learning more about the aviation industry. During the week, students will take field trips to airports and museums, meet aviation professionals, and have an opportunity to pilot an airplane.

For more information and to download an application:
Go to www.obap.org, click on "Project Aerospace", click on "Ace Academy", go to LA/Compton Ace Academy.

Questions: Contact Tony Marshall at 760-247-0456 or F4Tony@aol.com

Thank you for your interest in the LA/Compton Ace Academy